

ABOUT US

MAKCO is a group of companies delivering turnkey projects and related professional services since 1949.

Professionalism with prime motive of providing complete satisfaction to the clients has been the reason of continuing success and exponential growth.

Various multi-disciplinary projects like infrastructure development, roads and bridges, industrial compounds, on-shore petro-chemical facilities, mass housing and water resources, treatment and distribution networks have been completed for various governmental and multi-national organizations maintaining strict adherence to international standards.

The long list of achievements is owed to the dedication of the highly experienced professionals in the team.

Today, Makco operates in the United Kingdom and Libya with over 550 employees.

Makco is administered by a wide range of written policies, guidelines, contracts and standards of best practice.

The commitment to perform with excellence, deliver on time, and meet the established goals reflect in our in-house practices as well as in our reputation earned over a span of 60 years.
